

FAQ

1. What does the enrollment fee cover, and why is there a fee?
A- The fee covers the clerical cost to enroll a candidate into the system. It also covers the cost of time, material, and labor required to market the system. Free classes and consultation is offered as well to help make you more successful in using the work alert system. These are offered on an ongoing basis to help you procure not only a higher quantity of jobs, but higher quality as well.

2. How many people use this system?
A- This freelance system is world wide, and used by fortune 500 companies to small single member companies. People from all over the world are posting jobs to be done on a freelance basis from home within this system.

3. Are people successful using this system?
A- In one word YES. However you have to give yourself time to learn how to bid and win jobs. It takes time, and people who don't give up after the first few no's will realize great advantages once acclimated to the system.

4. Do I have to bid on every job?
A- NO. Simply bid on the ones you would like to do?

5. Can I change my job categories?
A- Yes once a month you can change.

6. Are there any other fees or charges?
A- Only if you would like to sign up for the Gold Membership which is $19.99. There are advantages and disadvantages to this program. This is covered within the free classes I offer.

7. How do I get paid?
A- You can be paid via direct deposit, check, or pay pal. The system pays you on a biweekly basis.

8. Is this a scam?
A- No. I am glad to meet with anyone one on one to speak. I offer my personal cell phone out, and offer payment through paypal to ensure everything is on the up and up.